DR. CLANCY'S ADAPTATION OF "MEDEA" WELL RECEIVED

A near capacity audience was struck by the flexible power of a great work of art with the opening of Dr. James Clancy's adaptation of Euripides' tragedy, "Medea," in the college Little Theater last night.

An example of what might be called classic acting was performed by Dorothy Lyon as the barbarian princess, Medea. Playing on a high emotional pitch most of the time, the actress showed a natural ability for the difficult role.

The other members of the cast were somewhat overpowered by their principal.

Run-Off Race Today Eight Candidates To Vie For Four Spots

The names of eight candidates will be on the ballot for today's run-off election. Voting began at 8:30 this morning, and students may go to the polls until 4:30 p.m. Adele Bertolotti and Joyce Woods are vying for the office of senior class treasurer. They received the highest number of votes in the preliminaries Wednesday, when one person was eliminated.

Seeking the office of junior justice on the Student Court are Richard Brown and Tom Case. Winifred Helm was placed in the woman's junior justice seat in the first election.

The sophomore presidency will be decided by today's vote. Racing for the office for the second time are Vern Baker and Dick Cirigliano.

Joe Ashworth and Don Gifford are vying for the sophomore vice-president's post.

Four booths again are stationed about campus, reveals Chief Justice Bill Logan. Students may cast their ballots at the polling place in front of the Morris Daley, in the Library Arch, the Science wing, or near the Home Economics building.

CCAA Champs Leave For K. C. Tomorrow

Nine Spartans and Coach Walt McPherson leave by plane for Kansas City tomorrow morning to represent California at the NAIB tourney.

The San Jose cagers will compete with teams from 32 districts of the country, representing the finest small college and university casaba talent in the nation.

Stu Inman, Chuck Hughes, Bob Hagen, Bob Wuesthoff, Ralph Romero, Junior Morgan, Hal Marks, Bob Enzensperger, and John Kane are the men who will play for the Gold and White in this elimination tournament which begins Monday at 12 noon.

"Every game will be a tough one and they're not cinches," states Coach McPherson. "We will play to win each game."

Marshall college, defending champions, Louisville, and Hamline are only three of the many tough competitors the Spartans may face. How many teams they play depends on them, as once a team is defeated it is eliminated from the tournament.

"grown soft" hero, Jason, with a convincing depreciating air.

Roxana Hildreth gave an excellent performance as the devoted servant.

Marian Jacobson, Stella Pinoris and Letitia Kendall were believed "Greek" in their graceful portrayals of the "Women of Corinth."

Richard and Franklin Willis brought a soft touch to the violent strain of the story.

The ingenuity of designer J. Wendell Johnson and his crew was well displayed by the use of one set which was applicable to the change of mood throughout the play.

SAN JOSE, CALIFORNIA, FRIDAY, MARCH 5, 1948

No. 98

The second annual California Collegiate Athletic association (CCAA) Winter Carnival will get under way this evening at 7:30 o'clock in the Men's gym. This is the first time that the Winter Carnival has been held at San Jose State college. Last year it was held at Santa Barbara. Coach Dee Portal's boxing squad and Coach Ted Mumby's gymnastic team will be defending their titles against the most formidable of the CCAA opponents tonight and tomorrow.

The wrestling squad will be out to upset the dope bucket with hopes of capturing the title. Other colleges besides San Jose participating in the Winter Carnival include: Santa Barbara, San Diego, Fresno, College of Pacific, and California Polytechnic.

GYMNASTICS

State's defending CCAA champion gymnastics team saw their position as heavy favorite for this year's finals disappear when Don Selmons and Oscar Metz decided to make an academic field trip tomorrow. With the finals scheduled for 2:30 p.m. in the small gym there is no chance either boy will compete.

Little is known about the strength of other CCAA schools, but with COP entering a full team their chances should be increased. The Tigers finished a poor third in a triangular meet with Sanford and San Jose here last week.

"Fisticuff Fling" In Women's Gym After CCAA Bouts Tonight

"Fisticuff Fling," an after-fights dance sponsored by the Freshman class, is scheduled to get under way in the Women's gym as soon as the CCAA boxing bouts are finished tonight, announced Bob Madsen, chairman.

Admission is 30 cents for ASB card holders and 40 cents for others. "We've arranged for some swell off-the-record music from private collections," Madsen states. "Cokes will be sold, and the fun will last until 1 a.m."

BULLETIN!

Mrs. Mary E. Simon, Soda Fountain manager, has announced her resignation effective March 22. The information was received in a letter dated Feb. 25, addressed to Comptroller Edward Thompson.

Mr. Thompson, who is also secretary of the Spartan Shop board, has called a special meeting of the board for this afternoon at 3:30 in room 107, to consider the resignation.

Thrust and Parry

With an enlivened interest in student politics and the construction of a new Associated Student Body Constitution, the mental life in this college is advanced. We are no longer one of the complacent campus communities on which the public is led around by the actions of a minority.

The recent publicity of Student Body affairs has awakened the public into an active and thinking being. Now the challenge is to finish the work already well begun.

The issue before the campus is not to be settled in a single election and the work undertaken to improve student government is far from finished.

It is up to you to further advance the quality of your campus by continued active participation through the careful election of your student officers.

WRESTLING

By DAVE PARNAY

Though the San Diego State college wrestling team defeated the Spartans in a dual meet earlier this year, Spartan wrestling Coach Ted Mumby believes that an upset is in store for the Aztecs when the CCAA finals get under way in the Men's gym at 6:30 tonight.

The Spartans will not be at full strength for the finals but memory of a one-point loss to the Aztecs in last year's championships should provide incentive enough for the hoped-for upset.

CAPTAIN OUT

Definitely off the mats are Bill Rothwell, Tom Payne and Captain Freddie Albright. Ralph Payne will make Albright's weight for the finals.

The following men will represent San Jose: Bryce Wheeler at 114 pounds, Rich Carlisle at 125 pounds, Ralph Payne at 136 pounds, Sam Lawson at 147 pounds, Pat Felice at 160 pounds, Don Foster at 174 pounds, Karl Jensen at 191 pounds, and Phil Bray in the heavyweight class.

MANY PARTICIPANTS

Over 35 wrestlers from San Jose State, Cal Poly, San Diego State, and Santa Barbara State will compete in the finals. Only three men will defend championships won last year. They are Jim Kirtledge, Bob Dierdorff and Don Arnold. All represent San Diego and wrestle at 160, 174, and the heavyweight class respectively.

St. Mary's Swimmers Submerged By Speedy Spartan Mermen, 58-17

Sparta's natators outswam the St. Mary's Gaels last night in the local pool and grabbed eight first places to win, 58-17.

Tudor Bogart put in the outstanding performance of the evening when he tied the school record in the 50-yard free style. Ed Rudloff did exceptionally well by outdistancing speedy Ralph Villiers of St. Mary's for a first in the 440 free style.

The Spartans also won the blue ribbon in both the 300-yard medley and the 400-yard relay. Pat

BOXING

By BARNEY BARNETT

Out to capture the CCAA boxing championship, the Spartan boxing team will go to the ring wars tonight at 8:30 in the Spartan gym.

Just who will oppose whom will not be known until the drawings late today. Slated for action tonight, however, are Razor Raul Diez, Bashing Bob Anderson and the Spartan dynamiter Kayo Keny Cayocca.

Anderson, San Jose's 145-pound PCI champion, will be fighting in place of Wayne Fontes in the 155-pound bracket. Fontes, still bothered by an eye cut suffered during the northern road trip, will be on the sidelines during the tournament. Also entered in the 155-pound class are Russ Barr of Cal Poly, Sam Cathcart, Santa Barbara's 1947 CCAA champion, and Bob Turner of COP. Turner might be the man to watch, for sources at COP say that he has about 50 amateur victories to his credit.

The 135-pound division should provide plenty of action with five boxers entered. Sparta's Cayocca will be battling it out with Jim Yameda of Cal Poly, Pete Avilar of COP, Billy Cormier, a CCAA champion from Santa Barbara, and Don Putnam of Fresno.

Competing for 165-pound honors will be Raul Diez of San Jose State, Nom Hong of Pacific, Cal Poly's Herb Pembroke and Tom White of Santa Barbara.

Anti-Broyles

Dear Thrust and Parry:

Mr. Broyles' amusing letter of March 2 was characterized by a delightful disregard of the facts.

He wrote that "The review of Dr. Hermanns' speech . . . contained ideas and poetic expressions which are perplexing to me." On the basis of a few fragmentary quotations in that short interview, the professor proceeded to refute and to ridicule Dr. Hermanns' beliefs, the Church, and the value of religion in the creation of a peaceful world.

It is regrettable that Mr. Broyles did not attend Dr. Hermanns' speech, in view of the fact that Dr. Broyles is an exponent of the scientific approach to the search for truth. Had he done so, we might have been able to consider this letter of his an honest expression of considered opinion, even though we might have disagreed with the sentiments therein.

Dr. Hermanns traced the history of German religious and philosophical thought, in connection with the German tendency to accept high moral ideas, and to distort them so that they seem to support their preconceived ideas of "Blood and Soil," or the "Super-race" theory. He did not, as Dr. Broyles assumes, blame the late war on any lack of organized religion or religious thought in Germany.

I do not choose to dispute with Mr. Broyles and his personal view concerning the practicality or propriety of "praising the Lord." I feel that to hold any man's belief concerning God up to scorn or criticism in public print is an act of gross impudence, and is in the poorest of taste. ASB 5939

Broyles Swing

Dear Thrust and Parry and Owen M. Broyles:

Obviously you wished someone (I suspect there will be many) to take a swing, leaving your printed self as wide open as you did. You have employed some very useful logic in your articles—the logic of conclusive statements based upon incomplete facts. Please note the following glaring inconsistencies:

(1) "... if 3,900,000 babies in 1947 is a measure, our family life is blessed with plenty of family." I'm afraid that it's not a measure. Birth rate statistics are valueless as a measure of family life unless combined with facts and figures regarding total population, total married population, number of separations and divorces, juvenile delinquency, etc., and then subjected to expert interpretive analysis. Your figures do not mention even, whether or not these offspring are legitimate, illegitimate, or both.

(2) "Allegorical treatment of present international problems . . . is not favored as a guide to what to believe and what to do." How can "allegorical treatment" be a guide? It is merely a method of illustration and explanation which may be used for clarification in connection with any given subject. I have never heard any intelligent person represent it as a guide to believe in.

(3) History has shown that there have never been any true religious wars; all have economic and political bases. In fact, the Christian religion is opposed to violence of any sort.

(4) "It is not religion . . . but citizenship and responsibility for the deeds of the present that will save us . . ." There was a time, Mr. Broyles, when "responsibility for the deeds of the present" did not require us to provide for sick, poor, aged, destitute, or homeless; there was a time when child labor was proper, keeping a slave was lawful, and education was reserved for the nobility.

It was the church which accomplished these reforms and provided us with a social conscience. Incidentally, the word "citizenship," which you so casually use, is a fairly new one in our vocabulary—citizenship was not always considered a "right of man." If you are not responsible to God, where is your responsibility to come from? Surely not to oneself, for who among us is that important? Shall we not praise the Lord, as you suggest? Who, then?

Posters Destroyers

Dear Thrust and Parry and those Adolescent College Students who Can't Leave Political Posters Alone:

While going to lunch, I was astonished to see a college student stooping low enough to tear-up a political poster of a candidate, and clutter the Quad with its remains.

This is not only under-handed to the candidate's poster, which was destroyed, but a poor way to gain votes for an opponent. To think that San Jose State contains students whose minds are so weak that they are not able to see the damage done to the campaign, but also the disgrace to the college and its governing bodies. It is odd to think that college students would use such juvenile tactics.

Let's keep the future campaigns of State clean and aboveboard! ASB 3082

Broyles And Religion

Dear Thrust and Parry:

Mr. Owen Broyles states in his letter to Thrust and Parry, last Tuesday, that it is doubtful if religion can add to the possibilities of peace.

Perhaps religion cannot, if you speak of religion in the broad sense of the term. Let's be more specific and speak of Christianity. This happens to be what Dr. Hermanns centered his speech around last Sunday.

Next in line to think of is Christianity, as seen in Jesus Christ, and not in the way we see His principles trampled upon by numerous "so called Christians" today. If the world leaders would study the life and work of Christ, and attempt to follow his teachings, there is little doubt but that this world would be a much better place in which to live.

Thirdly, it will take much more than an emphasis on citizenship and responsibility for the deeds of the present, to save us from "man's inhumanity to man."

We can preach this philosophy as long as the world exists, and yet this will never solve man's inherent nature of greed and selfishness that causes crime waves, wars, etc. Larger prisons and greater armies will never solve the situation either.

Until man is willing to change his original nature by turning to Christ, we can expect little change in the general direction in which this world is moving.

John Gothberg

Broyles' Letter

Dear Thrust and Parry:

It may be said for the Spartan Daily that it prints the most interesting letters. Reader Owen M. Broyles is perplexed by tried and true religious philosophy. Will the confused Mr. Broyles elucidate on such a statement as "... the world would be better off if religious people were civilized more, and if civilization were less distorted by the organized religions?"

And please, Mr. Broyles, when you present statistics on the birth rate in the U. S. for 1947, also give us the death rate for 1947. Then we will have a better view of the rate at which the US is being populated.

As a final thought, let Reader Broyles contemplate the fact that organized religion has existed for almost 2,000 years. Is there a nation which has been organized that long?

WSSF Answers

Dear Thrust and Parry and ASB 3125:

WSSF acts along four main lines of action in distributing money to students in need of help:

- (1) Medical care.
- (2) Intellectual relief.
- (3) Emergency food, clothing, and housing.
- (4) International projects, such as rest centers, student sanatoria, DP's and refugees, etc.

The over-all allocation of funds is determined at WSSF headquarters in Geneva by the executive committee in an annual meeting held each summer. This committee screens all requests for money and decides upon the general program.

WEEKEND CEREMONIES INSTALL ALPHA CHI OMEGA ON CAMPUS

Beverly Clay Heads
Gamma Eta Chapter;
Greets Nat'l Officers

Alpha Chi Omega, national fraternity for women, joins the list of Pan-Hellenic organizations on the San Jose State college campus this weekend when the organization installs Beta Gamma Chi society as its 71st chapter. This chapter will be known as Gamma Eta, according to Bev Clay, president.

The installation program lists pledging ceremonies for Friday evening, followed by an informal reception for the national officers at the Hotel Sainte Claire. Initiation of collegiate and alumnae groups will be held Saturday afternoon with a formal banquet scheduled for the evening at the Sainte Claire.

The weekend's activities will close with a model chapter meeting Sunday morning and formal reception in the afternoon at the Student Union. Mrs. William L. Sheppard is chairman of initiation arrangements.

National officers who will be in San Jose to conduct these activities are Mrs. Harry H. Power, Austin, Texas, national president; Mrs. Ivan L. Willis, Flossmoor, Ill., national vice-president; Mrs. Paul D. Dodds, national western counselor, and Mrs. Ned Lewis, national province president, both from Los Angeles; Mrs. Matthew H. Scott, Berkeley, national secretary; and Mrs. Robert R. Lockhart, San Francisco, alumnae district chairman.

Alpha Chi Omega was founded in October, 1885, at DePauw university. In addition to the college chapters, there are 130 organized alumnae groups throughout the country.

Alpha Chi Omega has long supported various philanthropic projects and has made a special project of activities for child welfare. Early in World War II the fraternity gave funds for the establishment of a shelter for bomb-shocked children in England. Later the organization sponsored four nursery schools in Detroit and Milwaukee, for children whose fathers were in service and whose mothers were employed.

The organization has helped sponsor, since 1909, the MacDowell Colony at Peterborough, N. H., an institution to foster creative art. The project was established through the efforts of Mrs. Marian MacDowell, a member of Alpha Chi Omega and widow of composer Edward MacDowell.

PEGASUS TO EDIT LITERARY WORK

Inquiry in English classes indicates that at least 500 copies of the proposed SJS literary magazine would sell on the campus, according to Dr. Raymond Barry, head of the English department. Dr. Barry adds that it is desired to make the publication annual if the apparent student support materializes this year.

The sale price of approximately 35 cents for the 40-page book, which will consist entirely of reading matter in the form of stories, essays and poems, will not meet the cost of printing. The deficit will be made up this year by drawing on a small magazine fund left over in the English department from "El Portal," a student magazine formerly sponsored by the department and discontinued during the war.

Materials are being assembled and edited by Pegasus literary honor society, in collaboration with an English departmental committee appointed by Dr. Barry and consisting of Robert V. Orem, Mrs. Charlotte Rideout, Dr. Esther Sheppard, Otho C. Williams and Dr. James O. Wood. Additional materials are solicited for the first number and may be turned over to any member of the English department or of Pegasus. President of Pegasus is Jean Grenbeaux. Members of the organization favor "The Reed" as a title for the magazine.

Sorority Circle

Phi Kappa Pi . . .

Members of Phi Kappa Pi (now pledging Gamma Phi Beta, national sorority) entertained the Winter quarter pledge class at a dance Friday night at La Rinconada Country club.

Barbara Quadros was in charge of the dressy affair. Dancing was from 9 to 1 to the music of Kenny Taix and his orchestra.

Patrons and patronesses were Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Avery, Mr. and Mrs. Al Gordoy, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn A. Reed, Mr. and Mrs. John Spurgeon and Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Williams.

Delta Gamma . . .

The new Gamma Eta Chapter of Delta Gamma, national women's fraternity, held its winter pledge dance Saturday night at Brookdale lodge.

Arrangements for the semi-formal affair were made under the direction of Nancy Talbot.

Patrons and patronesses for the affair were Mr. and Mrs. Earle Cavins, Dr. and Mrs. Jack Vogelmann, Mr. and Mrs. John Dowdle, Miss Wanda Witherspoon and Miss Lillian Billington.

Gamma Eta is the former Kappa society on campus.

Violin Instructor Featured Soloist Tuesday Night

Gibson Walters, violin instructor in the College Music department, will be featured as soloist at the Symphonie Orchestra concert to be presented Tuesday evening in the Morris Dalley auditorium.

"Symphonie Espagnole" (Opus 21) by Edouard Lalo, which Mr. Walters will play, has been particularly popular this season, according to Dr. Lyle Downey, head of the Music department and conductor of the orchestra.

The composition, a Spanish piece written by a French composer, was first performed in the late 1800s.

Mr. Walters was Assistant Professor of Music and conductor of the Symphony Orchestra at the University of Idaho at Pocatello before coming to San Jose State college in 1947.

He was formerly violinist in the Chicago Symphony Orchestra and has appeared as violinist with the American Conservatory orchestra in Springfield, Mo., and the University of Idaho Symphony orchestra.

MANHATTAN COLLEGE WITHDRAWS FROM KANSAS CITY TOURNAMENT

Director Says Action Based On Racial Issue; NAIB
Says Negro Ban Stands

NEW YORK (UP)—The Manhattan college basketball team has withdrawn from the NAIB tournament in Kansas City today as college officials charged that the tournament was guilty of "racial discrimination."

Brother, Eusebius, FCS, Manhattan's director of athletics, announced the withdrawal yesterday and said the action was based solely on the racial issue.

(In Kansas City, tourney Secretary Emil S. Liston said Siena college of Ludonville, N. Y., had been selected to replace Manhattan.)

Brother Eusebius charged that the contract submitted by the NAIB to Manhattan specifically stated that "colored students are not eligible" to compete. The clause was not noticed, he said, when the college accepted the bid last week, but Manhattan officials took prompt action when it was called to their attention by a student group studying inter-racial problems.

A monument over the great pacer, winner of last year's $25,000 Roosevelt track derby, will be erected by owner Fred G. Greenly, who dropped his plans to ship the body to Harrington, Del., due to delay of the post-mortem.

VICTORIOUS SAN JOSE CAGERS
LEAVE TOMORROW FOR KAS. CITY

By JOHN GOTHBERG

After completing the most successful season in the history of basketball at San Jose State, the Spartans leave by air tomorrow morning for Kansas City and the National Association of Intercollegiate Basketball tournament.

The Gold and White team has a record to date of twenty-one victories and eight losses. Along with this exceptional season's record, the locals boast the completion of a ten game league schedule without a mar.

San Diego State and Santa Barbara wound up with a tie for second spot with six wins and four defeats. College of Pacific, who won the championship last year, came out in third place this time with five wins and as many losses.

CAL POLY

Cal Poly, who gave the Spartans one of their toughest games of the season, ended up in the cellar position with only one victory to their credit.

The outstanding ability of men like Chuck Hughes, Stu Inman, and Bob Wuesthoff has made this splendid showing possible. Bob Hagen's fine floor play and shooting has saved the day for State on more than one occasion. Ralph Romero is the boy who has received little acclaim for the terrific job that he has done for the locals, particularly on defense.

There are several other men who have done a great deal to help the Washington Square team hit the top. These include: Hal Marks, Bob Enzensperger, Ron Staley, Junior Morgan, John Kane, George Keene, Swift Wunker, and Art Allen.

HUGHES AND RESERVES

Coach Walt McPherson will lose Chuck Hughes, Hal Marks, Ron Staley, and John Kane through graduation. Thus, he will see the return of his entire first string with the exception of Hughes. On paper this may look like the Spartan mentor has a cinch for another championship. However, Hughes has not only been one of State's outstanding scorers and defensive men, but he is the man that has oftentimes been responsible for holding the team together.

FRESH STARS

Bob Bowles, Orv Orton, and Chuck Crampton, who have played top notch basketball for the freshmen, will be moving up to strengthen next year's varsity. All three of these fellows have proved themselves dead eyes at hitting the bucket.

REBOUNDS

By A. M. FRITZ

Wednesday night's game was a fitting finale for a fine basketball team's home season.

Tomorrow morning the McPhersons (nine of them) leave for Kansas City by plane and a chance to add some trimming to the bangup job they did this season.

With the end of the cage season, the Inmans and the Wuesthoffs and the Hagens won't be making those trips to San Jose. Parental eyes have watched their offspring many times this season.

PEPPERDINE GREAT

Two fine teams competed for the honor of representing California at the NAIB tournament. You can't help but feel sorry for Jerry Lowther and Bill Lindquist of the Waves, who had hoped for a trip homeward. Both men are native to the locality.

The crowd was electrified and stared long and hard as Bob Hagen dribbled down court. He dribbled part way, and about 25 feet from the bucket took off. He sailed through the air like a meteor and, when he came down, it was two points for our side and one of the longest sustained human flights without benefit of an air plane ever witnessed.

Wave and Spartan cagers congratulated each other after the game, with the former offering best wishes for future success and the latter condolences, and the wish that both teams could have gone.

Al Duer, Pepperdine coach, gave a friendly word of advice to the Spartans. Any bodily contact at the NAIB tournament will be called a personal foul, and the refereeing is much stricter.

SPARTANS AND INMAN

The cool manner in which the Spartans played ball and their 72 per cent accuracy on the free throwline made the difference. Both teams were tense and anxious to win, but our side, aided by the fact they were playing on their home court and skillful ball handling during all but the opening minutes of the second half provided the difference.

Stu Inman, continuing his sterling play, tanked 22 points. With a little more confidence in himself Inman is now the greatest threat to the opposition. His hook shot from the key is greatly improved and he will be a big factor in whatever Spartan wins are accomplished in Kansas City.

JOB WELL DONE

Chuck Hughes, Bob Hagen and Bob Wuesthoff are others who are all dangerous. Any one of the aforementioned is liable to break out in a scoring rash during the course of any game. This factor has contributed to San Jose cage success during the past season. When one man can't hit, there is usually another who can.

If not, there are always Hal Marks, who has done some timely scoring, Junior Morgan, who is just beginning to recover from football injuries and should be great when the Gold and White need rebound control, and Bob Enzensperger, who has improved his style of play this year.

THE DEAL

By BARNEY BARNETT

A person or persons unknown on the staff of the Chico State Wildcat has been taking swings at San Jose State college in general and the Spartan athletic department in particular for some time now.

LISTEN: CHICO SPEAKS

For the benefit of the rabid readers of this column who have not heard of Chico State, it is reportedly a college and reportedly located in Northern California.

To get back to our main theme, we wonder what we poor Spartans have done to earn the ire and scorn of the Wildcat (no pun) editorial board. Perhaps the members of Chico's fourth estate are suffering from an inferiority complex because they are not connected with a fine paper like the Daily. Or perhaps they feel that their coaches and athletes far outshine our willing workers at Sparta.

OOPS CHICO

However, we think it is only fair that we point out to the Wildcat sport staff that the Chico boxing team has twice signed for matches with San Jose State and have twice seen fit to back out, or should we say cancel, the matches. Not that we blame them for not wishing to meet the likes of Bob Anderson, Kan Cayocca, Spartan Charlie Townsend et al. However, if Chico State sport writers think their boys are so vastly better than ours, they should offer some explanation for the reluctance to engage in athletic relations with the Spartans. Or, in more vulgar terms, put up or shut up.

She: "Are you the bull of the campus?"

He: "That's me, baby."

She: "Moo!"

NETMEN OPEN CCAA SCHEDULE
AGAINST COP TIGERS TOMORROW

By DAVE PARNAY

With the exception of Gene Franco who has been defaulted to second position, members of the varsity tennis team have been working hard all week in preparation for a tentative match with San Mateo on Friday and the opening of the CCAA schedule on Saturday morning with COP. Two other changes have taken place along with Don McKenzie's ouster of Franco for the first singles spot. Dave Parnay regained third singles and will meet Franco this afternoon in a challenge match, and Ed Terry took fifth singles from Ev Sawyer. The varsity now stands as follows: Don McKenzie, Gene Franco, Dave Parnay, Chet Bulwa, Ed Terry, and Sawyer. Manager Jim Waterman is seventh and Bob Phelps is eighth.

The Spartans have been concentrating on singles and except in practice matches with San Mateo JC have played no doubles at all. However, McKenzie and Franco will probably play first doubles, Parnay and Terry second, and Bulwa and Sawyer third.

RACE HORSE DIES

DEL MAR, Calif., March 4 (UP). A ruptured main artery to the heart was blamed today for the death of pacing champion Direct Express.

A post-mortem examination by Dr. Norman G. Roberts, veterinarian, revealed the fatal injury. The horse dropped dead Monday while in training here and was buried in the infield of the Del Mar track yesterday.

McPherson Compares Present Cage Five With 1938 Team, Has A Long Career

By BOB BLACKMON

Walt McPherson compared his 1947-48 CCAA champion basketball team today with the last great basketball aggregation from Sparta—the 1938 team composed of Carroll, Kotta, Radinich, Thomson, and McPherson.

The basketball mentor said that the '38 team was better defensively and possibly better as ball handlers, but this year's club is better offensively. The '38 quintet won their last 18 games of the season, including contests with Santa Clara, St. Mary's and U.S.F.

Looking forward to next season, Coach McPherson said that the team should be one of the best on the Coast. This year's entire first-string will return with the exception of Chuck Hughes. Bob Enzensperger and Junior Morgan, capable alternates, are only sophomores. Up from the frosh are Bob Bowles and Chuck Crampton, who would fit well into any coach's plans.

PLAYED UNDER WILLIAMS

Coach McPherson's first venture into scholastic athletics was for Walt Williams, varsity baseball coach, then baseball coach for San Jose High school. At that time he spread 135 pounds over a 6 ft. 1 in. frame.

At Sparta, McPherson won letters in basketball, baseball, and football. He was fullback and captain of the great 1938 Dud DeGroot coached team.

He returned to State to coach freshman basketball and varsity baseball in the spring of 1939. In 1941 and 1942 he coached varsity basketball. After a leave of absence for service in the Navy, he returned as coach of varsity basketball players.

BADMINTON CHAMP

The 1941 Spartan team was co-champion with San Diego State college. The Aztecs later went to Kansas City to defeat Murray State Teacher (Ky.) in the finals of the NAIB tournament.

Coach McPherson is assistant coach of the varsity football team also.

He has held the county badminton championship since 1942.

HUGHES FINALE

Chuck Hughes was given a thunderous ovation when he left the contest via the foul route with a few minutes of play remaining. It was Chuck's last college game in Spartan gym and he played in his usual stellar style. He added 11 points to the cause and engineered many scoring plays.

Steady is the word for Bob Wuesthoff. Bob's scoring has been a pleasant surprise to Spartan fans the season over. He got 9 against the Pepperdiners besides doing a great bit of rebound work under both baskets.

DEFENSE COGS

Bob Enzensperger and Ralph Romero, although they didn't figure too prominently in the scoring, were vital cogs in the Spartan machine. Bob made a couple of beautiful assists, one of which saw him save the ball from going out of bounds and passing to Hagen for a drive in shot. He converted a Pepperdine out of bounds play into a bucket for our side.

ON TO KANSAS CITY

The entire team played "Big League" basketball against the hook shot artists from Los Angeles way. Many fans thought it the best basketball game of the season. Both clubs made it clear that they wanted the trip to Kansas City. If any club ever looked great in losing, Pepperdine did Wednesday night.

The Spartans will travel by air to the mid-west. If they play as they did against Pepperdine, no team back there will have an easy time.

Good luck in K.C., fellows, and from all Spartan fans, thanks a lot for a season of fine basketball.

BOXERS CLASH AGAINST CCAA FOES TONIGHT

Slated to box Saturday night for the Spartans are Rudy Aguirre, Spartan Charlie Townsend, Pete Fransulich and Rod Richardson.

Roughhouse Rudy Aguirre, the Atomic Artist, will be battling against Bill Carrillo of COP for the 125-pound championship. No information is available on Carrillo and he may well be the dark-horse of the tourney.

Spartan Charlie Townsend, who has suffered only one defeat this season, will be San Jose's contender for 130-pound honors. He will be matched with Les Rising of Cal Poly in what looms as a banner battle.

Portal probably will not announce his 145-pound entrant until late today. However, the man picked may expect somewhat of an argument from Shunro Noumura of Cal Poly before he can lay claim to the CCAA crown.

Pickaxe Pete Fransulich, the Spartan light-heavy, will provide the evening's entertainment for Gene Pimentel, 175-pound Mustang from Cal Poly.

Rowdy Rod Richardson, who has been improving all season, will be fighting it out for unlimited honors with Cal Poly's Ken Cornelius in the only heavyweight brawl of the tournament.

SJ STATE SHOOTERS WIN

The San Jose State rifle team out shot the Bronco gunners of Santa Clara University 1320 to 1293 in a Intercollegiate rifle match yesterday.

A. Bayley, Spartan sharpshooter was high point man for the San Jose State team with a score of 292. Other riflemen included Ken Calhoun, D. Hernandez, Riley, Felt, Steele, McCarthy, and Collier.

A. Gosolini was high man for Santa Clara. He had 268.

SAN JOSE STATE BASEBALL TEAM VIES WITH STRONG STANFORD NINE AT PALO ALTO TOMORROW AT 3 P. M.

Coach Walt Williams' baseball team will go after their second win tomorrow when they cross bats with the Stanford Indians at the farm at 2:30.

Stanford is undefeated in their first three contests, holding victories over Portola AC, USF, and Bank of America. The Spartans also hold a victory over the Bank of America nine.

MALONEY WILL START

Williams will start Con Maloney on the hill against the redmen. Maloney looked very good against the Bank of America club, going all the way.

LINEUP

Pete Denevi will handle the catching assignment. The remainder of the lineup will see George Wehner at first base, Frank Vizza at second, Don Lopes at short and Will Concklin at third. Jack Marcan will start in left field, Johnny Metz will be at center, and John Peterson will patrol the right field area.

Game time is 2:30.

Plans are under way for Memorial Day services here, according to Paul Pitman, dean of men.

Dean Pitman is chairman of the committee that already has set forth a tentative program for observance of this day.

Football Notice

Football Candidates: All candidates for the 1948 varsity football team will meet Monday, March 8, in S112 at 3 p.m. The meeting will not last long.

Merle Knox' Team Takes First In Meet

Before a good turnout yesterday at the Spartan track field, Merle Knox's team won a hard-fought Interclass Track meet with 75 points. Connie Kazarinoff (Varneck) squad was second with 64. Linn was next with 51; Bob Likens, 49; Tom Birmingham, 45; and Thelno Knowles, 34.

The outstanding performers on the varsity squad included Gene Haynes, Woody Linn, Ray and Howard Overhouse, and Don Smalley, and Thelno Knowles. Haynes won the distance races, while Smalley took the 180-yard event but was tied for first by Don Birmingham.

The high hurdles and the discus toss were the two best and closest races during the day. Ray Overhouse had to be at his best to win the event with a 149 feet and nine inches. In the high hurdles Jack Passey won with the time of 8.7. Knowles won two events and participated in several others.

George Mattos was the outstanding novice performer. He won three events. They were the broad jump, high jump and the pole vault.

The Likens team won a nip and tuck relay which wound up the afternoon's track program.

Santa Clara Given Artistic 'New Look'

How does Santa Clara look to you?

Twenty-three artistic interpretations of this area are now on display on the second floor of the Art building. The exhibit is the work of Art majors in the Watercolor class, 127B.

Warren W. Faus, instructor, remarked, "These watercolors represent work from every member of the class. It is an unusually interesting show and I'm sure the student body will want to see it."

The exhibit will continue on display until the end of this quarter, said Mr. Faus.

Kovyers Will Talk To Calvin Club

The meaning of Calvinism will be explained by Neal Kovyers at the devotional meeting of Calvin club Sunday evening at 7:30 in the First Presbyterian church, 60 N. Third street. Preceding Kovyer's talk, Calvin club will hold a vesper service in the Campus Inn, next door to the church. Vespers start at 6:30.

Advanced Science Course Offered

Advanced Nature Study 100 will be offered spring quarter for those students who have completed Nature Study. The class will meet Monday and Wednesday afternoons from 1:30 to 4:30.

"The course is planned to use the material collected on field trips and available in most schools and also to devise teaching techniques and devices suitable for elementary classroom work," according to a notice from the Science department office.

Students interested in the course should sign up with the secretary in the Education office or contact Dr. Matthew F. Vessel in the Science building.

Wild Life Discussed

Donald McLean of the California State Fish and Wild Life Service will discuss various aspects of the conservation of our wild life before the conservation of natural resources class Monday morning at 8:30 in room S210. Faulk Exonerated; No Profanity Used

Contrary to an erroneous announcement made over a local radio station Wednesday night, Jack Faulk, Spartan footballer, was not ejected from the Pepperdine game for profanity Wednesday night.

According to people who saw what happened, Faulk jumped to his feet, expressing protest at an official's decision, at the same time another fan threw something at the official.

The official saw Faulk standing there and assumed that it was he who had thrown the object. He ordered Faulk to leave the gym.

According to basketball players and Coach Bob Bronzan, who were much closer than the radio announcer, Faulk did not say a word.
